

Employment Law Update: Current Issues and Future Trends

Focus & Description

Join us for Downey Brand's annual employment law seminar providing updates and guidance for 2010. Topics include: addressing the H1N1 virus; tips for managing social networking by your employees and its impact on the workplace; the complications and fallout from workplace romances; recent case law on the "interactive process" and avoiding reasonable accommodation claims, and; the status of meal period and rest break regulations and the State Supreme Court's anticipated ruling in the Brinker case. Downey Brand's employment attorneys will also review recent changes in the law and recommended updates to your employment policies for 2010. Please bring your employment law questions for a lively discussion followed by a question and answer session.
