Practice Areas

Complex Business Litigation | Employment Litigation | Real Property & Land Use Litigation

Elyse Carpenter applies strong analytical and communication skills across a variety of litigation practice areas to deliver meaningful solutions to clients.

Driven by a commitment to advocacy, Elyse combines research and critical thinking to empower clients to make informed decisions across a wide variety of areas, including employment litigation, property disputes, and complex business matters. She approaches each matter with the goal of achieving the best possible outcome. Elyse focuses on learning what matters most to the client, ensuring that every strategy is tailored to protect their interests and move them forward.

During law school, Elyse was a member of the UC Law Journal and the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA). These experiences laid the foundation for a practice rooted in strategic thinking, advocacy, and client-centered results.
