Jamie Dreher helps clients navigate the maze of options in complex corporate reorganizations and Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases.

As the firm's lead bankruptcy attorney, Jamie advises and represents debtors, creditors committees, and both secured and unsecured creditors in financial restructuring, commercial litigation, and planning for and navigating complex corporate reorganizations and Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases. In addition to representing companies and individuals as lead trial counsel in state and federal court litigation and bankruptcy courts, he is called on to counsel clients facing insolvency-related issues.

Jamie frequently represents commercial lenders in pursuing defaulted or distressed obligations, including both judicial and non-judicial enforcement mechanisms, suits and arbitrations enforcing guarantees, and foreclosures of deeds of trust. He also represents banking, financial institutions and other lenders in protecting their collateral through receiverships, and receivers in their capacity as court-appointed fiduciaries.

Based in Sacramento, Jamie serves clients throughout California, Nevada, and in major bankruptcy cases nationwide.

Experience

- Obtained $10.0 million+ judgment for non-dischargeability, revocation of discharge, fraud and damages including fees and costs, after multi-day trial in bankruptcy court involving medical billing mismanagement, fraud, HIPAA violations, and other wrongful conduct.
- Confirmed chapter 11 plan of reorganization for luxury houseboat rental and sales operator, including payment in full to unsecured creditors and restructure of matured secured debt at favorable terms.
- Represented the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in the SK Foods, L.P. chapter 11, one of the largest chapter.11's filed in the Eastern District of California (Sacramento Division).
