Practice Areas

Corporate Law | Real Estate | Taxation | Wealth Transfer

Jennifer Barcellos assists families and business owners in various areas of estate planning, trust administration, probate, business, real estate, and estate, gift, and income taxation. Clients trust that she will skillfully guide them through the legal complexities with compassion and empathy.

Jennifer works collaboratively with clients to meticulously craft comprehensive estate plans that pave the way for the success of future generations. Her adeptness extends to skillfully advising individuals and families throughout the intricacies of trust and probate administration. In addition, Jennifer provides insightful guidance on entity formation, management, and real estate transactions, all with a watchful eye to minimize tax liabilities.

Before practicing law as an attorney, Jennifer honed her skills as a trust, business, and tax paralegal for twelve years.
