Practice Areas

Appellate & Writ Practice | Complex Business Litigation | Construction Litigation | Corporate Law | Real Property & Land Use Litigation

Marino Dominguez is a driven and meticulous litigator who brings relentless preparation, strategic thinking, and a client-first approach to every matter he handles.

He thrives in high-pressure environments and is known for clear, persuasive advocacy rooted in thorough analysis and practical problem-solving. Marino focuses on developing litigation strategies that are efficient, realistic, and tailored to each client's goals.

Marino earned his J.D. from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law, where he distinguished himself through strong written and oral advocacy. He was elected to the Order of the Barristers for excellence in advocacy and further strengthened his practical skills through externships with Chief District Court Judge Troy L. Nunley of the Eastern District of California and Superior Court Judge Barbara A. Kronlund. These experiences provided him with meaningful insight into judicial decision-making, courtroom procedure, and effective, strategy-driven advocacy.

He is committed to serving clients with the same focus and discipline that defined his academic and professional development. Marino values direct communication, collaborative problem-solving, and a solutions-oriented approach that keeps clients informed and confident throughout the process. His down-to-earth nature and work ethic make him approachable, relatable, and effective—someone clients trust, and colleagues enjoy working with.
