USA RICE
OUTLOOK CONFERENCE

SAN DIEGO, CA
DECEMBER 5-7, 2018

Educational Service of
USA Rice

Welcome to the 2018 USA Rice Outlook Conference!

As your chairman, I'd like to welcome you to beautiful San Diego in my home state of California, and to what I know will be another successful USA Rice Outlook Conference. Thank you for taking time out of your schedule – away from family, farm, and office – to join us here.

Charley Mathews

We have a wonderful program scheduled with exciting speakers, educational sessions, a jam-packed exhibit hall, and interesting networking opportunities. And, be sure to check out the Ride With Rice pickup truck at the USA Rice booth in the exhibit hall! It traveled more than 4,000 miles to get here, distributing samples of U.S.-grown rice and Aroma rice cookers, and sharing the U.S. rice story along the way. And it could be yours...if you buy a raffle ticket!

The goal of this, the largest annual conference in North America dedicated to rice, is to bring farmers and representatives from all segments of the industry from every corner of the country together to advance industry education, communication, understanding, and cooperation.

I'm confident we've done that once again, so I encourage you to make your time here memorable. Take advantage of our stunning location right here on the bay and make the most of USA Rice Outlook 2018!

Charley Mathews Jr.
Chairman, USA Rice

Events for the USA Rice Outlook Conference will take place at the Marriott Marquis San Diego. The general sessions, breakout sessions, exhibit hall, innovation stage, and registration will be in the Pacific Ballroom located on the 1st floor. The Annual Awards Luncheon will be in the San Diego Ballroom located on the 2nd floor.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6

2:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Water Pressures

Dr. Michelle Reba, Research Hydrologist, USDA/ARS, Arkansas

Kevin O'Brien, Partner at Downey Brand

Linda Raun, Texas Rice Farmer

Rice needs water to grow, yet we find ourselves with less and less available water. Hear from experts across the rice growing regions on what's being done now and what we need to focus on for the future.

Sponsored by:

3:00 – 3:45 p.m.

Row Rice: The Future or a Fad?

Many growers swear by row rice production and say it helps them with water use without sacrificing yield. Is this a fad or the future?

Sponsored by:

4:00 – 5:00 p.m.

Conservation Tales

Success is the result of preparation, hard work, and learning from failure. Farmers will share personal stories of how things went differently than planned while implementing conservation practices and how they turned those experiences into success.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7

9:00 – 10:00 a.m.

Perspectives on Sustainability

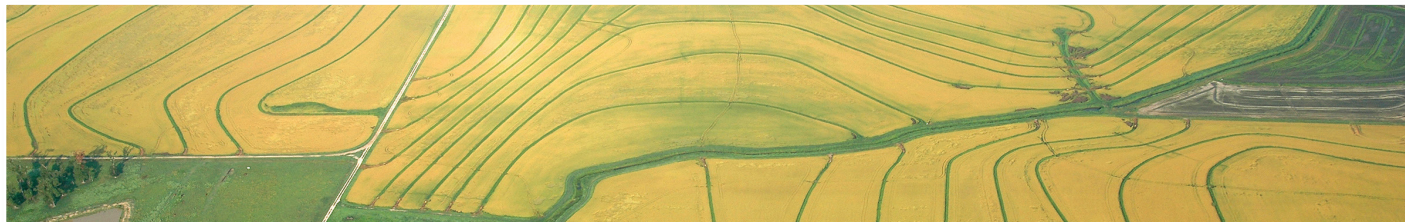

Spencer Cooper, Senior Manager of Field Outreach and Education, Almond Board of California

Jim Stone, Intermountain Joint Venture Management Board Vice Chair, Rolling Stone Ranch, Montana

Dave Smith, Coordinator, Intermountain Joint Venture

Step out of the rice echo chamber and hear from different commodity groups about what has worked well and what hasn't in their efforts to increase working lands conservation and positive public perception.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6

2:00 – 2:45 p.m.

Grain Bin Entrapment: What Not to Do

Dr. Brent Cox, Global Emergency Management Solutions, LLC

This session explores options and low- to no-cost steps to prevent bin entrapments. Participants will analyze the steps taken to successfully rescue trapped victims and discuss the do's and don'ts that should be adhered to while awaiting rescue teams.

Sponsored by:

3:00 – 3:45 p.m.

Application Technology and Drift Mitigation

Dennis R. Gardisser, Ph.D., P.E., President, WRK of Arkansas, LLC

This session will cover the best management practices for application efficiency and efficacy. Emphasis will be on drift mitigation techniques to include: weather interactions, application planning, droplet size predictions and potential travel distances, and timing.

4:00 – 4:45 p.m.

Macroeconomic Outlook for U.S. Agriculture

David Oppedahl, Senior Business Economist, Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

The strength of the U.S. economy can be measured many ways – from job growth and home prices to mortgage delinquency rates. Oppedahl will review macro-level indicators of U.S. economic health, and the potential implications on the demand for U.S.-produced agricultural commodities and farm income.

Sponsored by:

5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

The Future of Retail

Paul Galvani, Vice President, Marketing, Riviana Foods Inc.

Few things are changing as rapidly as the way we make our purchases and the retail landscape today looks almost nothing like it did even just a few years ago. Galvani will share his insights into where things are headed and why, and how future generations will shop.
